	Total Balance			$14,918.52
	Outstanding			$1,168.50

5. Medallions for Wonthaggi challenge were purchased and the league was asked to pay for these this was out of order as the league has never supplied medallions for this event before.
6. Also a $21.00 advertising bill for the Junior competition without Committee approval. Treasurer Peter Mackrell handed out a letter to all members to question the purchase of these items without the consent of the Committee and also to question the President Alan Timmins involvement in the Junior competition being run illegally under the Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association banner. The President Alan Timmins explained that he had not realised that the medallions had not been supplied before and asked the Committee to accept his apology. The President Alan Timmins apology was accepted:

Vote: For 19/Against 1

- Carried -

It was put forward that the league should provide these medallions for the inter-league challenge with Wonthaggi but only at home.

Moved: John Burns

Sec: Alf Shingles

- Carried -

The President Alan Timmins also explained that the Junior competition was running under the name of The Gippsland Junior Pool League and was not using the Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association name. It was also noted that the Junior League had been using the Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association's league table without permission the President Alan Timmins apologised for this. His apology was accepted:

Vote: For 19/Against 1

- Carried -

A motion was forward that the Juniors be under the same umbrella as the Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association and that the $21.00 advertising fee be paid by Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association. It was also put forward that the Juniors be aloud to use the Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association's league table.

Move: Duane Morrell

Sec: Wayne van Heerewaarden

Vote For 25/Against 1

- Scorer's Report: The Scorer Paul Pike had nothing to report.
- President's Report: Alan Timmins welcomed all too meeting, thanked Executive and Committee for all there help throughout the previous year.
 Thanked Boolarra Hotel for use of there venue for the meeting.
 Appraised the league for a successful year and the inclusion of three new teams which took the total to nineteen teams.
 Thanked George Tutchell for his service as secretary and wished him all the best all the best for the future and hoped that his health had improved.
 Thanked the Annual Presentation Ball Committee for a job well done for presentation night and the selectors who did a good but thankless job.
 Thankyou Daniel Partridge for head adjudicating throughout the year and those who volunteered to mark at the finals.
 Thanked all of our sponsors and the venues for there support and asked players to support them where ever possible.
 Congratulated the finalist who produced a great final and Churchill for being 2001 Premiers, and who were also the Championship team against Mid Gippy and Wonthaggi League Premiers.
 Congratulations to Steve Gray for being Player of the Year and to Peter Simpson for being Singles Champion.
 Congratulated all players who made our league representative sides with our third team almost making the finals and congratulations to our first and second sides for making the finals.
 He believed that the officers need more power to run the day to day operations of the league. Should look at holding an annual tournament that is open to everyone in the long weekend in June.
 Pool Victoria have asked us to sell raffle tickets at $3.00 and $1.00 to Pool Victoria and $2.00 to the league or $1.00 to the league and $1.00 to the clubs. Pool Victoria fees for 2002 are $7.00. The Junior league to come under the umbrella of the Latrobe Valley 8 Ball Association along with the Summer Competition, with each having its own Committee.
 In all a very successful year hoping that we can only get bigger and better.
