Some very interesting results this week and as per usual ordinary performances from most players who attended the Country Cup, happens every year. Drift is drifting down not up and the Sports Bar with only 3 players can thank the handicap Gods for their result and also a welcome back to Phil Gibson. Jack Green played his first game of the season. Two draws this week just to keep it interesting!

Dare to Drift even with the addition of the Matt Sawyer (questionable move) could only get a draw, where was the Drift himself? Meanwhile the opposition in Rosa Payne was punching above her weight! Hustlers not quite strong enough against the Postmen. The Sports Bar welcomed back Luke Porter with 3/4 wins while the rest of the team might as well have stayed home keeping warm by the home fire. A good win for the improving Bowls Club whilst the Good Guy's are playing well with a good win. Keep Warm!

Turks Chalkers were too good for Dare to Drift with the 'drift' himself kept to 1 frame for the evening, things could have been worse if they had not won all 4 frames in the last quarter. Rod Chapman winning 3 frames for the winners. The Hotshots just got home against the Hustlers thanks to the handicap. The Bowls Club going up the ladder were too good for the Pool Sharks. Sports Bar lucky to get away with a draw after losing all 4 frames in the first quarter, the Good Guys would have won if Brad Kelleher was able to complete the outage off the snap in the last frame also to Colin Young enjoy your new birthday present brrrrmm brrrrmm!

The MRS� Hotshot's now on top of the ladder with a win over the Postmen with Adam Skilbeck winning the trifecta his third 4 frame game win in a row! Turks Chalker's to good for the Bowls Club and the Renegades just getting on top of the Sharks. Next week is round 9 half way through the season and there are some great lines ups.

Half way change sides! The MRS� Hotshot's have cemented their spot on top of the Ladder with a trouncing of the MRS� Good Guy's with and Adam Skilbeck winning the Quaddie (4 x 4 frames in a row), apparently Colin Young was busy with his birthday present to play! The Sports Bar woes continued with the Bowl's Club with a +2 handicap points head start decisively beating the Sports Bar with no amount of snooker's from Andrew O'Neill helping (apologies to Trevor). Postmen to good for the Pool Sharks and The Chalker's just getting up on the Renegades thanks to the Handicap. Dare to Drift back to business as usual going down to The Hustler's.

Individually well done to Adam Skilbeck who has won all 4 games again that's 5 weeks straight, 20 frames no losses although it wasn't enough to get the team across the line with Dare to Drifts winning. Turks Chalkers were way too good for the Sharks and the Good Guys without Brad Kelleher were still able to overcome a strong Postmen side after the handicap adjustment, lesson here strength doesn't always prevail. Draws this week for the other two match ups. Some good match ups next week. Good Luck!

Adam Skilbeck's run of wins comes to an end and so does his team who suffered its second loss in a row. Postmen takes top spot off the Chalkers after beating them, The Sports Bar just getting over the line against the Pool Sharks with Rosa Payne keeping up her average. The Hustler's were too good for the Renegades winning the first 8 games. The Good Guy's & Dare to Drift ended up a draw with the 'Drift' restricted to 1 frame, Ash his son playing first game for the season winning one more than his dad. Lastly congratulations to Wayne van Heerwaarden on taking out the Open Singles Championship on the weekend.

Turks Chalkers take top spot with a win over the Sports Bar thanks to the handicap, also Adam Skilbeck back in business with a 4 frame result we will just forget about last week okay. His team the Hotshots back in the winning seat with a comfortable win over the Renegades. Hustlers easily getting the points Shannon Russell could be in doubt for next week being the only one to drop a frame. Trevor Hough winning all 4 frames wasn't enough for the Bowls Club with the MRS� Good Guys coming away with the win. The Postmen went down to the Dare to Drift after handicap, surely the 'Drift' himself will get dropped for next week with only a single frame contribution!

Couple of draws this week kept things interesting on the ladder. The Hotshots were to good for the Pool Sharks though things were turned upside down for the Hotshots with 3 of the 4 team members getting 4 frames ... so what happened Adam?... might get dropped next week for under performing! Anyway the Sports Bar had a good win coming down to the last frame of the night against the Postmen, Sports Bar had a leg up this week caus yours truely wasn't playing! Turks Chalkers drew with the Hustlers but after handicaps got the win!

Postmen beat the T'gon Bowls Club and the MRS� Good Guys got across the line from the MRS� Pool Sharks, Rosa again keeping her average. The Sports Bar and the Hustlers drew. Ladder starting to take shape with the top 4, a few outsiders but thet'll need to get some more wins if they're to get in. Three rounds to go with some very interesting match ups, the ladder is looking very wide open, only the bottom 2 teams are out of play for a top 4 finish! Dare to Drift may be better off without the 'Drift' well done to Matt on getting the trifecta this week - three 4 wins in a row. More donuts for Rosa! Sports Bar beat the top of the ladder MRS� Hotshots but no good umpire's available and where was Claire Blackford??? Postmen getting across the line against the Hustlers in a good match up with the rest all drawing after handicaps. Next week another big round with some great match up's.

Lots of 4 frames this week including the 'DRIFT' himself who hasn't played since rnd 12 helped get his team over the line against the Chalker's who had a few players out this week. Hotshots lose top spot to the Postmen with the Hustlers being to good coming away with a solid win, they used the 'force' he's back! Long night for the Sports Bar & Good Guy's with Sports Bar getting over the line...just. Bowls Club & Postmen to good for there opposing sides. Some good match ups next week the final 4 still not settled, lots of team looking for a spot but there's only 4!

Some big match up's were played this week with the Hustlers beating the Good Guys 'Use the Force Luke' and Turks Chalkers set in the top 4 now, got the win away against the Bowls Club. Postmen drew with the Hotshots, Daniel Roberts the Turks Bar publican - He's Not The Messiah Kenny, He's A Very Naughty Boy! Sports Bar drew with the Dare to Drift in a tough fought out match! The Renegades were too good for the Pool Sharks and on a sad note we lost poor Henry last week, RIP our condolences to Jane and the family. 4 frames were a bit rare this week with yours truly lucky enough to get in the hunt. Some more big match up's next week the final 4 not set yet! ps wish Ade all the best and hope to see you back playing next week.

Preliminary

Grand Final

Well well well the Hustlers just sneaking into the final 4 on percentage after they drew with Dare to Drift, the Sports Bar out on percentage. The Postmen easily beat the Sharks but on a positive note 'donut girl' beat Kearnsy = drop him for finals Kenny! Chalkers to good for the Renegades so they hold onto second spot whilst the Hotshots beat The Good Guy's who fall out of the top 4 finishing 7th. Lots of 4 frames this week and good luck to those who made finals and thanks to all the teams for competing and for making it a great season and hope to see everyone for the Summer comp.
